EDUCATION IS THE SURE REMEDY FOR MODERN BOLSHEVISM

PRES. FAUNCE DECLARIES IN CHAPEL.

Stirring Appeal Made Before Student Body.—Americanization Defined.

President Faunce in Chapel yesterday spoke earnestly endorsing the work of Americanization now going on extensively in this country, and especially that being carried on by Brown men, both graduates and students.

"In dealing with Americanization," declared Pres. Faunce, "we must first define our terms. It is not enough to start under some splendid banner, which withers as we go along, and soon loses its meaning. Some think that Americanization means stooping to a lower level to deal with the 'vulgar foreign-born.' That idea of condescension on our part is entirely wrong, and it breeds resentment. Many foreigners are the possessors of intelligences and faculties far greater than those who are dealing with them. We have no such love for beauty as that so common in the Italian race, nor their power of expressing it in wonderful pictures, statues, songs.

"Bolshevism exists among the rich as well as among the poor. There are several wealthy people in this country secretly devoting their entire fortunes to the promoting of Bolshevik enterprises and plots. They are sincere but uneducated and misguided people, some of whom have obtained some wild idea from a newspaper, and have held to it because they were not made to see the right. There is a cer-

J. L. JENKS '20, EXPLAINS ROTARY SPARK PLUGS.

Practical Demonstration and Lecture Adds Much to Meeting of Radio Club.

The Brown Radio Club held an important business meeting Wednesday evening, in the Engineering Building, at the conclusion of which J. L. Jenks '20, gave an interesting and instructive talk on the design of efficient rotary spark gap plugs. His audience was appreciative, and applauded loudly at the conclusion of his talk.

In leading up to his main topic he gave a short summing up of the functions of the gap in a transmitting set, showing the advantages and disadvantages of each of the four types.

Next week the Radio Club will begin the installation of the motor generator unit for I K W transmitting set. This set will have a range of approximately 300 miles, which will enable the club to get in touch with the clubs of other colleges.

Brown Men Enter Local Xmas Seal Campaign Effort

SECURED AS SPEAKERS FOR NEXT WEEK.

War Against Tuberculosis is Purpose of National Organization.

The National Tuberculosis Association and its affiliated State and local associations are starting a campaign against the tuberculosis disease which has proved a dangerous enemy in the past few years. This was shown in one year by the fact that 67,882 American soldiers, sailors, and marines were killed or died from other causes in the world war, while at home in the same time tuberculosis sneaked into the homes of 150,000 American men, women and children, and took their lives.

This greatest enemy to mankind is a very secret, insidious, invisible foe that creeps upon its victims, thus making its conquest doubly as long. It tightens its grip each day and if permitted, would besiege the "city of humanity." This is what the National Tuberculosis Association is out to fight and do away with.

This organization can not fight unless it has the same spiritual and financial backing that the soldier received in France. It is the duty of every one to aid this campaign against this greatest enemy.

The fight will start with the uncovering of unknown cases, then provisions for adequate facilities for hospitals and sanatoriums which serve as the battle field or slaughter house of this dangerous enemy.

The students of Brown University are coming forward in this

COACH FREEMAN IS VERY CONFIDENT.

His One Purpose is to Defeat R. I. State.

Coach Freeman believes that Brown's basketball prospects for this season are very bright. He makes but one definite claim,—that Brown will beat Rhode Island State. He also said that there is one result which the team has absolutely got to attain, and that is to beat Wesleyan. This victory looms up as a necessity to him, because when he captained the Williams quintet in his senior year, he was unable to get into either of the two games against Wesleyan on account of a bad knee. Now he is out for revenge through the agency of the Brown aggregation.

ZECHARIAH CHAFEE SLATED TO SPEAK ON COLLEGE NIGHT

FREEDOM OF SPEECH TO BE HIS TOPIC.

Former Brown Man Secured by Economics Club.—Professor at Harvard.

Freedom of speech will be the subject of a talk next Tuesday evening by Zechariah Chafee '07. The address will be given in the Union at 8:00 o'clock, and the occasion will be a regular College Night. Mr. Chafee's services have been obtained by the Economics Club, and the officers of the club have decided to open the meeting to the entire student body in view of the widespread interest at the present time in the subject to be discussed and of Mr. Chafee's reputation as a clear and interesting speaker. This will be the second meeting of the year for the Economics Club.

Mr. Chafee is now a professor in Harvard Law School, whence he was graduated in 1913. While in college he was prominent both as a student and in college activities, being connected with both the Debating Union and the Brunonian. After his graduation in 1907 he entered business but later decided on the law profession. Since then Mr. Chafee has written numerous magazine articles and assisted in the preparation of the History of Harvard Law School.

BROWN PLACES NO INDIVIDUAL SCORER.

Pennsylvania Places Four Men. Dartmouth and Harvard Have Two Men Each.

Brown does not place a single man on the list of twenty-one highest individual scorers during the past football season. Rodgers, fullback for West Virginia, leads the list with one hundred and forty-seven points. This score doubles the second highest, who is Weldon, fullback of Lafayette, his score being seventy-nine. Hastings, right halfback of Pittsburgh, stands third with sixty-six points. Zink, quarterback of Amherst, "rates" fourth having but one point less than Hastings.

Pennsylvania, with three men's names appearing, lead in the number of men on list. Harvard, Wesleyan, Dartmouth and Navy have two men on list.

The following is the list:

Combined Musical Clubs at Wheaton College To-night

MANY NOVELTIES ON THE PROGRAM.

Medley of Brown Songs to be Opening Feature.—Dance After Concert.

To-night the Combined Musical Clubs are to open their out-of-town season with a concert at Wheaton College, Norton Mass. This will be the second concert of the year, following the one before the patients of Butler Hospital which was very well received last week. After the concert a dance will be tendered by the girls at Wheaton for the members of the club.

The outstanding features of the program will be the opening medley of Brown songs by the combined clubs, the string quartet, the vocal quartet, and selected readings by S. H. Tucker '22. The string quartet will be composed of D. R. Pinkham '21, R. P. Jenks '21, A. E. Gwynne '21, and C. H. Cahill '22. The vocal Varsity quartet will be the same one that was so popularly received at the Senior smoker in the Union Thursday night. The members of this quartet are W. L. Dewart, Jr., '20, R. W. Greene '20, M. Standish '21, and J. E. Sarles '22. M. M. Sherman '22, was chosen at a rehearsal of the Mandolin Club Thursday afternoon to give a violin solo as part of the program.

The clubs are to leave on the 5:40 p. m. train from the Union Station. Manager J. B. Tasker, Jr., '20, desires that all men making the trip report to him at the station not later than 5:30.

The program to be rendered is as follows:

COVELL '20, ELECTED HEAD OF DELEGATES.

Four Brown Men to Make Up B. C. A. Delegation.

At the meeting of all the delegates for the Convention to Des Moines in the Union yesterday, J. H. Covell '20, was elected Chairman of the delegation, and E. A. Sterling was elected Treasurer. Four of the men will go West from Boston by a special car with about two hundred other students of other colleges. The Brown delegation, which has planned to go in twos and threes, as far as Chicago, will assemble there on Dec. 30 and go on together to Des Moines, where they will be on hand for the opening of the Convention at two-thirty the following day.

Notice.

All men who sold Union Dance tickets are requested to turn in all money and unsold tickets to the Union office as soon as possible.

Now aren't we glad we turned in that petition to the Administration?

Saturday afternoon finds Andrews Field abandoned and a serious crowding of the "movies" and theatres downtown. Strange that these college fellows must be amused!

Bon voyage to the Crimson football team on their trip to Pasadena—they may be more successful than we were three years ago?

Remember that there are only two weeks of classes following the vacation. Make these next two count for something. This is especially for you Freshmen who would like to turn your button in for a pin.

MINOR SPORTS.

The season of minor sports is now swinging into its own. With the football schedule completed over a week ago and outdoor track an impossibility we find the Lyman Gym a busy spot on the campus. Former members of the football squad are now seen daily tossing baskets on the main floor, rolling on the mat, perspiring over the dumb bells, and diving in the pool. There is a chance in this large variety of sports for nearly every undergraduate. With a certain amount of physical training required in order to secure a degree, there is the opportunity of going out for any one of these activities. Get acquainted with the coaches and let them see what you can do.

COLLEGIATE PROMISES TO SUB-FRESHMEN.

Under the prevailing system current in most of our colleges and universities there is a lively rivalry in procuring men of "prep" school athletic reputation to come to college. During the past few years Brown has not been lagging in this sub-Freshman campaign and her representatives have been very active in scouting up good material.

Oftentimes these athletes are presented with a beautiful picture of what the college is going to give them or do for them in return for their services as members of the various teams. It is nothing uncommon to hear one of these chaps say he was told not to worry about his finances, not to worry about his academic standing. So often do we hear this story that we are inclined to believe that some such promises as these are made. If so, there is one thing we can be sure of and that is that these very same promises are not kept by the various universities. Too many athletes drop out of college because of lack of funds or because of their standing to make us have any faith in these promises. We hear what the promises are and we see the results. We believe that as long as these promises are made just so long should the universities who make them remain true to their word. However, we are also strong in our belief that such a system of promises should be abolished. In no way does it conform with the spirit of the twentieth century university.

Dartmouth to Honor Football Men.

One week from to-night Dartmouth will honor its great football team by a big football banquet. At that time gold footballs with the scores of the big victories of the season engraved on them, will be presented to the letter men of the squad. Plans are under way for the accommodation of a large number of men, including hosts of prominent alumni.

President Hopkins heads the long list of guests, which includes Governor Bartlett of New Hampshire, Ex-Governor Spaulding, Coach Spears, and many other men who have contributed toward making Dartmouth what it is in the realm of sports. The entire college is anxious to pay homage to the gridiron heroes, and every effort is being made to have the banquet one of the greatest of its kind ever held in Hanover.

tain group in America which believes in lining all Bolsheviks up against a wall and shooting them. Is this the way of righteous democracy? We can not meet wrong with wrong, and law-breaking with law-breaking. Education is the answer. We must Americanize them—teach them the true meaning of American laws, principles, ideals, opportunities. The moving pictures and lectures are doing wonders as educators of the public. How many students understand the principles and the ideals of the founders of our Republic? These matters should be thoroughly studied—should be given an important place on our curriculum.

An Englishman at a recent lecture by a Brown professor, asked him what Brown is doing for the people in our city. What, indeed, are we doing for the 85,000 around us? We must not live for ourselves alone. We must find a way somewhere, somehow, to help in the instruction of our foreign-born citizens."

COLLEGE OPINION.

Vacations.

The policy of the administration of Brown towards vacations undeniably marks the university as a provincial institution. It proves conclusively that Brown draws a very high percentage of her students from the immediate vicinity, and that those from a distance comprise so small a minority that their needs and wishes are not to be considered. If this were not so, Brown would extend her vacation periods, and would allow additional time for travelling to those who have crossed half a continent to attend her sessions. Almost every university and college of importance allows two weeks for Christmas vacation. Dartmouth gives three. Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Cornell, Tufts, Williams, allow two weeks. But Brown gives a paltry ten days, with no added travelling time for those from afar. Assuredly they are very few, else student sentiment would rise so strongly that the faculty would be compelled to grant more time. Because of compulsory attendance at one class, some of us are forced to lose a whole day, due to failure to make proper train connection. For those who live near, a few hours more spent at the college make little difference. For those of us who must travel hundreds of miles to be with our family, minutes are momentous. Moreover, the administration feels that it can grant only three days at Easter. Hence, many of us can visit our homes but once during the school year. Harvard, with her ten thousand students, can give three weeks of vacation each year, but Brown with her nine hundred men, can give but twelve days. Brown is a provincial school, and she can never hope to become other if she follows her present policy.

K. B. B.

COMMUNICATION.

To the Editor of the Herald:

Is a request signed by practically every member of the student body worthy of a direct answer from the Administration? The petition to which I refer asked for an EXTENSION of the Christmas vacation, not a relief from the unpleasant situation which existed on one end of the recess by placing it on the other. Evidently there has been a lack of proper interpretation and discussion for we have received no answer to show that there was any just consideration of our request in conjunction with the Cammarian Club.

The petition it seems to me was a protest against what the student body thought to be ultra-conservatism on the part of the Administration. Students who are paying and working for their education declared that they were willing to sacrifice five or six of their classes in order to spend three and a half days in the Christmas spirit of their homes. In many cases the recess will be one of the few chances to get home and will involve considerable expenditure. Does the Administration realize that the student body has feelings or does it consider that—as mechanical parts of the institution they must attend classes on Monday and half of Tuesday? Is it possible that Brown's academic standard is in so precarious a position that the loss of a day and a half will place it below the standards of other institutions who are allowing a recess of two and in some instances three weeks?

Various arguments comparing our vacations with those of other universities, conveniences to students, and the advantage which the Administration itself might gain by not having to decide upon the individual requests to leave early have little bearing on the matter. The question is whether or not the University will gain more scholastically by requiring attendance for a day and a half at the beginning or end of the week than it will by granting the students' request and gaining their hearty goodwill and appreciation.

Brown students cannot be accused of radicalism like that practiced by the student bodies of Syracuse, Colgate and Princeton when they left their classes without permission to celebrate football victories. The student body has presented what they deem to be a just cause through the proper channels. Consequently, we hope that the Cammarian Club acting in its capacity as intermediary between the student body and the Administration may soon obtain at least exemption from required attendance on the days in question.

Yours truly,
W. B. Downey '19.

Harvard's Trip to Pasadena.

Coach Fisher announced on Thursday that he would take twenty-three players to the Coast for the Carnival of Roses feature. Despite the fact that the Harvard squad broke training after defeating Yale, the coaches feel quite confident that, with a week of strenuous practice in California, it will not be such a difficult matter to put the Crimson eleven in fighting trim before New Year's Day.
